Coltishall Lock, Norfolk Broads. Coltishall is a pretty village containing some old houses with rounded gables, and a fine church. The malting trade flourishes here, the maltsters of the winter turning boat-builders in the summer. The first lock on this river is just above the village, and the fishing hereabouts is abundant and good, especially for jack.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

arrived home quite safe so delighted to see you had a lovely time hope soon to meet again at the same place so enjoyed my visit and feel all the better for it excuse more now best love in haste yrs Jennie
